TROTTING RECORD.

It Is Beaten by the Great Stallion Nelson

ON THE TERRA HAUTE TRACK.

Fifteen Thousand People Cheer Themselves Hoarse as the Great Horse Comes Under the Wire—The Time.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Oct. 10.—Fully 15,000 thousand persons cheered themselves hoarse when the great stallion Nelson flew under the wire, and it was known that for a second time he had broken the world's trotting record. The weather was warm and the track was never in better condition. The horse, driven by his owner, C. H. Nelson, flashed under the line quick as unchained lightning, and was away. He flew past the first quarter in 31 seconds and sped on like the wind. He flashed past the half in 1:04 3/4—a 2:09 1/2 gait, and a tremendous shout went up. The crowd rose as one man and watched the horse as he swept toward the three-quarter post, which he passed in 1:36 1/4, and then swung into the homestretch. On he came with frictionless motion and passed under the wire in 2:11 1/4, thus lowering the world's record by a quarter of a second.

Another world's record was broken in the free-for-all pace; purse, $1,000. Halpointer, in the first heat, made the fastest time ever made, covering the mile in the remarkable time of 2:09 3/4. Halpointer is owned in Buffalo. He won the race in three straight heats, making the marvelous time of 2:09 3/4, 2:21 and 2:13. These are the fastest three heats ever made in a race, and the average beats the world's pacing record.

AN EXTRA SESSION OF CONGRESS.

Reported That the President Will Call It for Nov. 11 to Pass the Election Law.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—A Washington special to The Mail and Express says:

It is stated, on what should be good authority, that President Harrison will call an extra session of congress on Nov. 11, to consider and pass the Federal election law.

The same authority tells me that before he left the city Senator Aldrich had an interview with the president and during that call President Harrison told the senator that he wanted the bill passed and before the second session began, and it was understood that the extra session would be called.

There will be no trouble in passing the bill in the senate, although the Democrats will endeavor to talk it to death; but should the extra session be called it will not last long, and the Federal election bill will be a law before it adjourns.

The news of an extra session is so surprising at this time that it seems hardly probable, yet inquiry on the senate side of the capitol showed that it is almost an accepted fact there, and that preparations are being made for the convening of the senate early after the November election.

Several of the senators' clerks and a large number of the senators' employees are here working with an idea of an extra session, but still there are many who will not believe the news, although the authority for it is reliable.

It is known that the president has been strongly urged by Republican leaders to call an extra session, and the delay in the matter has been occasioned by consideration of the question of policy involved.

A SMART STOWAWAY.

Robert Wade Crosses the Atlantic Ten Times Free.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—Robert Wade, a chubby, brown-faced sea rover, entertained a big audience at the barge office yesterday with the yarn of his adventures. Robert is a lad of 15, but he looks as if he were not more than 12. He completed his tenth voyage across the Atlantic from Liverpool on Saturday night on the steamship Etruria. At least that is what he says, and he says it in such a frank and earnest way that even the most cynical and yarn-inured marine would be disinclined to doubt him.

"If you don't believe," he added, "go and ask the firemen on the Gallia, the Servia and the Etruria."

Robert has been taking passage on these three vessels for the last three years. He usually stowed himself away back of the boilers, and when the ship was about a day out, he came from his hiding place and cultivated the friendship of the stokers. Robert comes of a family of seafaring folks in Liverpool. One of his ten brothers is barkeeper at the Manhattan club, and the rest sail the ocean blue on many kinds of craft. He has two sisters, and Robert shares, with his ten brothers and two sisters, the distinction of being an orphan.

Hot Pursuit of Robbers.

WICHITA, Kan., Oct. 10.—Last evening H. P. Fortner, a well known citizen, was held up near his residence by two men. The assailants covered him with revolvers and took from him a $500 diamond, $300 in money and a gold watch. Fortner hurriedly entered his house, and securing a revolver went back. He ran the men for half a mile, firing several shots, and as they were entering the timber along the river he fired again, when one of the men cried "I'm shot," but went ahead. Police were soon in the woods, but made no arrests.

Welcoming the Count.

FORTRESS MONROE, Oct. 10.—The Count of Paris and party, including Col. Coppinger, U. S. A., arrived here yesterday morning on the steamer George Leary from Washington and were transferred an hour later to the steamer Ariel, by which they are to be taken up the James river to Richmond, arriving there about 5 o'clock this afternoon.

CATHOLICS AND THE WORLD'S FAIR.

A Grand Exposition of the Educational Work of the Church.

CHICAGO, Oct. 10.—A movement that may have far-reaching results was formally inaugurated Wednesday evening at the rooms of the Columbus club. The occasion was the meeting of a number of prominent Catholics from various parts of the country, particularly the representatives of Catholic schools, academies and universities. The purpose of the gathering was to take steps toward presenting at the world's fair a complete exhibit of Catholic educational work in the United States.

Right Rev. J. L. Spalding, of Peoria, president, Archbishop Ireland, of St. Paul, made an address, in which he enthusiastically advocated the project. He said the exhibit should be thoroughly American in character and so clearly arranged that world's fair visitors should see it and be attracted by it whether they would or not. The American people, he added, would be keen to discover what was best in educational methods.

Vice President Bryan, of the world's fair directory, in a brief speech, following Archbishop Ireland, on behalf of the board, promised every assistance possible and ample space.

Secretary Dickinson, of the world's fair National commission, sent a letter tendering his services in promoting the exhibit.

After considerable discussion, Rev. E. A. Higgins, of St. Ignace college, Chicago, submitted a carefully drawn outline of procedure.

Bishop Spalding, Hon. W. J. Onahan and Dr. Maurice F. Egan, of the University of Notre Dame, were appointed a special committee to prepare a circular setting out the plan more in detail. A board of directors, consisting of twenty leading clergymen, representing the secular priests and all the Roman Catholic religious orders of the country, was also appointed.

Among those named are the Rev. Father Campbell, provincial of the Jesuits; Father Marshall, of Seton hall; Father Kavanaugh, of the Niagara seminary; and Father McMillan, of the Pauline, brother adjutor of the Christian Brothers, and Bishop Keane, of Washington, D. C.

Among the delegates present were three benedictine abbots. Following the meeting the visitors were given a reception by the members of the Columbus club and a large number of invited guests.

ALL BLUSTER.

John C. New Talks on the Effect of the Tariff Abroad.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Hon. John C. New, consul general at London, who is in the city for a visit of a few days, in speaking of the feeling abroad over the new tariff law says: "There is not so much dissatisfaction over the law in England as there is on the continent. The British merchants are very conservative and straightforward. The new order of things, change of our revenue system, will be irksome to them for a while, but it will not take long for the new machinery to get in smooth running order. There is no loud complaint in England over the McKinley bill.

In Germany and France, however, a good deal of clamor has arisen, but it will soon die out. They want our trade too much to carry out any so-called retaliatory legislation. In any event we could get along much better without their products than they can without ours. American cotton, wheat and meat are a necessary across the Atlantic, but congress will go on as usual. The retaliation talked of is all bluster.

Terrible Crime in Ontario.

CUMBERLAND, Ont., Oct. 10.—Mary and Eliza, aged 14 and 12 years, respectively, daughters of James McGonigle, living one and one-half miles from this village, who attended the village school, on Tuesday evening last started for home after school. When last seen they were half a mile from home and were being followed by a man named Narcisse Lorocoeque. The girls did not reach home, and last night their bodies were found by a searching party. The girls had been outraged and strangled. Lorocoeque is under arrest.

Rube Burrows' Body.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 10.—The dead body of Rube Burrows reached here at 3:30 o'clock yesterday morning and was gazed upon by hundreds of eager sight seers as it lay in the plain pine box enclosing it. It was subsequently taken to Lamar county and delivered to his father at Sulligent station. The old man wept at the sight of his boy's remains, and his sister went into hysterics, saying that he was shot down like a dog. The body was clothed in the same dirty suit he had on when captured.

Filled a Druggist Full of Shot.

ATCHISON, Kan., Oct. 10.—Mrs. Plummer, the wife of a prominent physician of Muscotah, created a sensation last night by filling Dr. J. E. Martin, a druggist, full of shot for selling whisky to her husband. She was afterward stoned and otherwise punished by Martin's clerk. She was arrested, but her husband went her bail. Martin tried to shoot in self-defense, but was too excited to use his weapon. The extent of his injuries is not known.

The Queen Distressed.

LONDON, Oct. 10.—The queen is much distressed by the report of the fatal illness among the grenadier guards at Bermuda. She sent her private secretary, Sir H. F. Ponsonby, to the foreign office twice yesterday to learn the latest news on the subject. Up to the present time, however, Lord Salisbury had received nothing from the island.

AN EXTRA SESSION.

Congress Will Probably Be Called Together.

SENATOR SHERMAN'S VIEWS.

In An Interview He Reveals Many Secrets That Have Hitherto Been Unobserved—Other Events That Took Place at the National Capital.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—The Sun's Washington special says: A dispatch was received in this city last night from Mansfield, O., saying that Senator Sherman, who is at his home in Mansfield, is of the opinion that an extra session of congress will probably be called. He says that the president is considering the matter seriously, and that the question is still open. The inference from Senator Sherman's remarks is that an extra session, beginning about the middle of November, is possible.

The prevailing opinion in Washington rather tends to discountenance this idea, and it is generally thought that the time to be gained by so late an extra session would not be sufficient to make it worth while to call one. There is also a division of opinion among the Republicans here in regard to the advisability of the proposed action, many thinking that a session called expressly to pass the force bill would be a first-rate campaign card for the Democrats.

WESTERN MOUNTAIN PEAKS.

Report to the Geographical Society Reduces Their Heights.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—President Hubbard, of the National Geographical society, has received a telegram from Maj. Russell and Kerr, who were sent out some months ago to attempt to scale Mt. St. Elias. They have arrived at Seattle on the return trip. The expedition is pronounced successful in a scientific point of view. The summit of Mt. St. Elias was very nearly reached, but the party was driven back by a heavy snowstorm.

The observations of the party give the following approximate elevations: Mt. St. Elias, 13,500 feet; Mt. Cook, 10,850; Mt. Vancouver, 9,400. The area mapped by the party is reported as about 1,000 square miles. The figures given as to the height of the mountains named will be apt to prove both a surprise and a disappointment. Hitherto Mt. St. Elias has been counted the highest mountain in North America, being credited with 15,500 feet elevation above the sea, while this measurement, if correct, will place that peak below the height accorded to several located in Mexico, Colorado, California, British Columbia and Alaska. Mt. Cook also loses position, having heretofore been credited with a height of 16,000 feet.

EASE BALL DEAL.

A Conference Between the Players' and National League.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 10.—Steps were taken yesterday to bring about a conference between the Players' and National League. It was in a telegram by President McAlpin, of the Players' League, to President McCallin, of the Pittsburgh Players' club, which read as follows:

"Can we have Pittsburgh consent to the appointment of a committee of three to confer with a similar committee from the National League looking to a settlement of the present base ball war?"

President McCallin wired: "Pittsburgh extends its consent to such a movement." Manager Hanlon last night said the request emanated from the National League and will be allowed through courtesy if for nothing else.

INTERESTING TO MEDICOS.

An Experiment in Vivisection Showing the Movement of a Dog's Heart.

LONDON, Oct. 10.—The opponents of vivisection, The Daily News' correspondent at Vienna telegraphs, will be disgusted to hear of an experiment which took place at the hospital Tuesday. A little dog was made insensible, fastened to a board, and when its heart had been laid bare, an instrument called an episcope was applied, which threw a magnified picture of the dog's heart upon the wall opposite, revealing to the eyes of all present every movement of the heart.

The experiment lasted half an hour. According to the professor a successful demonstration of the movements of the living heart is of the greatest value to students of medicine.

The Catholic Congress.

MADRID, Oct. 10.—The Catholic congress at Saragossa has adopted a resolution in favor of founding a Catholic Workmen's association. The congress has unanimously condemned the principle of liberty of conscience, and has recommended that public teaching be confined solely to the church. Exemption from military duty is demanded for persons preparing for clerical life and members of Catholic societies.

Trouble on the Big Four.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Oct. 10.—The Big Four operators, 400 strong, have petitioned for an increase of wages. Unless concessions are made a strike is probable.

Three in one night was the record of the Pan-Handle road for freight wrecks. Wednesday night two from unavoidable causes, and the third from a mistake of the freight crew, the total damage approximating $20,000, with no person injured.

Fear of Cholera.

LONDON, Oct. 10.—The Standard's Sofia dispatch says it is officially announced that the czar's reason for not visiting Constantinople is the fear of exposure to cholera infection en route.

Good family horse for sale cheap for cash. If not sold will let it out in exchange for feed. tfs27 W. A. HOWE.

MARITAL INFELICITY.

A Husband's Tale of Woe and Suit for Divorce.

William N. Allee, of Floyd township, has filed suit for divorce from Mary A. Allee, to whom he was united in marriage in 1862. They lived together as man and wife until the 6th day of October, inst., with the exception of a brief period a few years since, when a temporary separation took place. The plaintiff alleges in his complaint that four years or more ago the defendant contracted the habit of using intoxicating liquors to excess. She neglected her household duties and was very abusive of her family, cursing and striking plaintiff. For the past two years she has been guilty of habitual drunkenness, and has also committed the crime of adultery. The following-named children are the fruit of said marriage: Ada Allee, (now Ada Battenger,) aged 22 years; Leslie Allee, 12 years; Otie Allee, 11 years; and Ollie Allee, 7 years. The plaintiff prays for a dissolution of the marital bonds and the custody of his minor children. His occupation is that of a farmer.

Matthews and the Public Schools.

The Newport Hoosier State, published in the county in which Mr. Claude Matthews resides, contains the following:

Hon. Claude Matthews, the Democratic candidate for Secretary of State, is one of those fine-haired, aristocratic farmers who has no love for our common schools. He has been a resident of this county about twenty-five years, and during that time he has lived within two hundred yards of a country school, but the shadow of none of his children ever darkened the room. He was too tony to permit his offspring to mix with the common children of the neighborhood. He preferred to hire a governess to instruct his children. Do the people of the State of Indiana want to elect a man to such an important office who is too lofty to patronize the common schools of our county?

The many friends of Elder O. P. Badger will appreciate the following eulogium to the venerable preacher from the pen of Dr. J. P. Russell, of Waveland:

Our friend and brother reverent,
With long white beard so widely known,
With age his manly form is bent,
By on 'em labor all his own.

With shorter 'd step, and cane worn tread,
He still pursues his work of grace,
Oft found at bier of funerals' dead,
Or precincts in the holy place.

The holy book he daily reads,
And ponders well the godly store,
He for the godless sinner pleads,
And guides him to the Christ—the door.

When with his brethren, Oh! wot at cheer,
To meet him on the Christian way,
Delighted they to wait and hear
His counsels sweet to watch and pray;

Yea, thousands on his words have hung,
For four decades numbered th' throng,
Warn'd—mild and glad 'nd by his tongue,
To him their gratitude belongs.

More than a thousand souls have found,
By him in holy wedlock's chain,
And more than these through him bathed 'round,
A blessedness—new life to gain.

Through preaching of God's holy word,
By exhortations, earnest, warm,
By this lov'd preacher they have heard,
The way that leads from sin and harm.

And when the death-pall hovers o'er,
When mourners are by anguish riven,
He points them to that blissful shore,
Of the redeemed—a rest in heaven.

His is a life of purest ray,
That points to faith and holiness,
That leads the pilgrim on the way,
To paths of peace and blessedness.

Hail! holy hall! in holy fight,
Thy blessed haven leads to view,
Long have you battled for the right,
With faith unfeigned, and valor true:

So when our Lord shall come again,
To crown His saints in grand array,
May we be subjects of his reign,
In that eventful blissful day.

Waveland, Ind., Sept. 1890. J. P. RUSSELL.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address,

The interesting event will occur at the residence of the bride's parents, corner of Locust and Franklin streets.

DEPAUW NOTES.

Senator Ingalls writes he cannot accept a lecture engagement.

Dr. John Clark Ridpath will lecture on "Count Cavour—The Italian Bismarck" in the University lecture course.

It is rumored that Prof. Norman has a leave of absence for a few days—also that he will return with a charming young wife.

Miss Elve played the E flat major concerto of Beethoven's and a portion of Mendelssohn's Capriccio in B minor, with the University orchestra last evening. Although this was the first time that the orchestra had ever attempted to accompany an artist, Miss Elve expressed herself as being pleased with the result. This is one of the new departments organized this year.

Undermining the Legal Profession.

Iowa State Register.

As the people become more generally disgusted with the combines of lawyers there is a more general turning toward arbitration as the correct method of settling disputes. There is scarcely a case of litigation settled in the courts which could not have been far more cheaply and satisfactorily settled by arbitration. It is far better to divide the loaf before appealing to courts than it is to divide the loaf between the lawyers on each side, and in addition pay the other costs involved in litigation. If you cannot settle a dispute or controversy with another party it can be far more quickly and cheaply settled by each side selecting an arbitrator, and the two thus selected choosing the third arbitrator in case they are unable to agree. A great many thousands of dollars could be saved in Polk county in this manner every year. If you are thinking of going to law to settle a difference, try arbitration and let the people know whether the plan works well, after the dispute has been settled.

The Fool and His Money are Soon Parted.

On Wednesday, at Crawfordsville, two strangers sold watches and chains to several persons, who had an idea that they were getting something for nothing. At first they sold chains for 10 cents each, and then gave $1 for the chains. Then they sold watches for $10, the purchaser expecting to get $20 for them. Suddenly the men drove away, leaving several tin watches and brass chains in the possession of an angry crowd, who yelled after them and vowed vengeance if the men returned.

Girls, Read This!

To the school girl who secures the largest number of subscribers for the DAILY BANNER AND TIMES will be given an elegant silver jewel casket worth $8. The casket can be seen at Shipley's jewelry store. This offer will hold good from now till the 1st of November. Subscriptions should be handed in each evening after 4 o'clock.

Served Him Right.

The man who stopped his home paper because, as he said, he didn't have time to read it, was taken in by the "plow point" men, and swindled out of $250. The paper which he quit taking exposed the fraud the week before. So he was swindled out of $250 by not continuing to take the paper. Such is stupidity, but there are some men with just that much sense. The man who takes his home paper and reads, often saves enough money, by keeping posted to pay his subscription many times over.—Exchange.

A Title to Which He Has No Title.

W. F. Pettit, in jail at Crawfordsville, charged with the murder of his wife, says that he is annoyed by the newspapers that still print "Rev." before his name. He says that he "quit that business over a year ago", when, at conference held at Brazil, he was permitted to withdraw from the church and ministry under complaints, as the record shows.

Painful Accident.

George W. Earhardt, the grocer, was carrying a basket of potatoes down his cellar when he stepped on a hoop that caused him to fall, spraining his foot badly. He is up and about, though still suffering from his injuries.

Stock Sale.

The O'Hair brothers' sale on Thursday drew a big crowd of people and the sale was entirely satisfactory to its managers. Two hundred head of stock changed hands, at prices ranging from $25 to $35 for stock cattle. Fat cattle brought $3.92 per hundred weight.

A WITCH'S SPELL.

Tell me, witches, tell me true,
How to win a spell from you
That will charm a maiden fair,
Who is like a spirit of air.
Ariel and Caliban,
Aid me, aid me, if you can,
That I may secure an elf
As elusive as herself.

Everywhere her face appears,
Wreathed with smiles—bedewed with tears.
Luring me from day to day
In an ignis fatuus way
Ariel and Caliban!
Was there ever mortal man
So perplexed as I, who faint
Would this errant one detain?

Even through my dreams she breaks,
And most dire confusion makes.
And when I wake, anon,
Mischief take it! She is gone!
Caliban and Ariel,
Weave, I pray, some magic spell
That will fix the form and face
I would clasp in love's embrace.

When I smile she's sure to pout;
When I frown her laugh rings out;
When I'm near her off she flies,
With a challenge in her eyes.
Yet these very tricky ways
Win for her unstinted praise,
And were she less coy, 'tis true,
I should not met the maid pursue.

Though the victim of her spell,
I'll not struggle or rebel,
For this joy my heart retains—
Missing her I hug my claims.
Ariel and Caliban,
Vain for ye to plot and plan
To entrap the saucy elf,
For she is a witch herself.

FRIDAY, OCT. 10, 1890.

THE McKinley bill as a law is not a week old, and yet already $10,000,000 are pledged for the erection of tin-plate factories in Pennsylvania and Maryland.

THE campaign opens so auspiciously for the friends of good government that even the Indianapolis Sentinel is forced to admit that "Indiana will go Republican unless Democrats do their duty."

THE monster gatherings of enthusiastic people that greet President Harrison in his journeyings furnish conclusive evidence that his wise, safe and patriotic administration is entirely satisfactory to them.

THE record of extravagance and downright theft of the people's hard earnings to pay "party workers," by the last Indiana Legislature, should forever exclude from power the party that is responsible for such a body.

STRAWS show which way the wind blows. The city of Portland, Maine, the home of Speaker Reed, gave him an increased majority at the recent election. The city of Covington, Ky., the home of ex-Speaker Carlisle, elected a Republican Mayor last Saturday—a thing that has not happened before in a quarter of a century. This seems to be a Republican year everywhere.

It is not every Democrat who will admit that his party is given to blundering. Congressman Cooper says a blunder was committed in the re-nomination of Grover Cleveland, and his predecessor, Col. Matson, says the party also blundered in making the old Ohio man his running mate. If the admissions of its leaders are to be accepted, it follows that the proper thing for the people to do is to relegate the party to that bourne from which no blunders emanate.

THE fewer speeches Senator

Voorhees makes to the farmers the better it will be for his political fortunes. Unfortunately for the Senator, he voted against free sugar and in favor of free wool. One would naturally suppose that if he intended to benefit the farmer he would have voted in favor of free sugar and against free wool. But the "trusts" must be protected in consideration of the bond of union between them and the Democratic party.

ANOTHER evidence of the necessity for non-partisan control of our benevolent institutions is furnished in the enforced retirement of Superintendent Jacobs from the office of Superintendent of the Institution for the Education of the Blind. Mr. Jacobs' management has been distinguished for efficiency and fidelity to the welfare of the unfortunate wards of the State, but he refused to do the bidding of a partisan board of trustees, and for that reason only he was forced to retire from the position. So long as partisan boards are appointed, the management will continue to drift in the direction of party favoritism to the great detriment of an efficient service. Nothing but non-partisan control is an effectual remedy for the evil.

Reducing Rates.

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 10.—On Saturday the Soo road make a rate via the North German Lloyd line from New York of $37 and via the Allen and Dominion line from Montreal and Portland of $37. This is a reduction from the regular rate from Minneapolis of $15. This action by the Soo is due to alleged rate cutting by other roads.

Strikers Take Possession.

SYDNEY, N. S. W., Oct. 10.—The striking union workmen yesterday attacked the firemen heaving coal at Bulli, and after dispersing them, occupied the mines. The police were unable to preserve order, and reinforcements have been sent to the scene.

Snow in California.

SISSON, Cal., Oct. 9.—Light snow fell at intervals here Wednesday. There has been a heavy fall of snow on Mount Shasta.

Is Consumption Incurable?

Read the following: Mr. C. H. Morris, Newark, Ark., says: "Was down with Abscess of Lungs, and friends and physicians pronounced me an incurable Consumptive. Began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, am now on my third bottle, and able to oversee the work on my farm. It is the finest medicine ever made." Jesse Middewart, Decatur, Ohio, says: "Had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption I would have died of Lung Trouble. Was given up by doctors. Am now in best of health." Try it. Sample bottles free at Allen's drug store, Albert Allen, prop. 5

Traffic Official Changed.

CHICAGO, Oct. 10.—John N. Faithorn, of the Western and Northwestern divisions of the Western Freight association, has resigned, to accept the chairmanship of the Southwestern Railway and Steamship association. Mr. Faithorn was chosen by the executive committee of the association at its meeting here on Monday. He is one of the oldest traffic officials in the west, and has won a high reputation, especially during his connection with the Western Freight association, with which he has been connected for a number of years. His present salary is $3,000 a year, and it is understood that his new position will pay either $12,000 or $15,000 a year.

EXPORT DISCOUNTS.

THE DISHONEST ARGUMENTS OF DEMOCRATIC SENATORS.

Senator Vest and His Maliciously Misleading Statements—His Deceptions Exposed—The Discounts for Export Only of Foreign Railroads.

The Reform club's experts, in circulating slanders against American manufacturers, are merely doing the work of the foreign mill owners, who expect some return from their contributions. Free-trade newspapers, lacking honest argument, reproduce in all their bald untruthfulness the sensational statements about export discounts, and Democratic senators father the calumnies by having them inserted in The Congressional Record.

These statements are maliciously dishonest and misleading. When Senator Vest, assuming their truth, says: "Forty-five per cent. is put upon agricultural implements for the purpose of protecting the manufacturer, and I say that it has protected the manufacturer so effectively that he is now able to go into the unprotected markets of the world and sell for one-half to the foreign consumer or user of agricultural implements that he sells to the American farmer," he must know that he is slandering his fellow citizens.

He has undoubtedly read the statement of The Mail and Export Journal—the best authority on the subject.

"The truth of the matter is just this: The quotations named, as taken from the foreign price current, are for the wholesale or jobbing trade, and not for the foreign consumer, the latter being required to pay as much for the goods which he buys from the dealer in his own country as the latter deems sufficient to reimburse him for the cost of importation, with his profit added."

He knows perfectly well that the price currents of all sorts of hardware and agricultural implements issued for the trade in the United States give prices which are subject to large trade discounts, running from 10 to 75 or even 90 per cent.

For the senator to go on from day to day repeating statements and drawing inferences respecting American manufacturers, and to their prejudice, which he knows to be false, is, we submit, unworthy of his position and cannot fail in the end to detract from his reputation for common honesty.

It is dishonest in Mr. Vest to attempt to distort into robbery the refusal of American manufacturers to sell agricultural implements to farmers at wholesale rates when he knows that the same rule obtains in every other industry, whether protected or unprotected. The manufacturer does not profit by listing prices at the retail price while selling them with a discount to the dealer. The well known effect is that he sells almost no goods at the retail price. The trade is thrown into the hands of the middleman, and the manufacturer refuses to undersell him. If there is any injustice in this it has existed in trade from time immemorial, and has nothing to do with tariffs. There is no "robbery" about it.

Senator Vest blunders in assuming that the export journals circulate among the farmers of South America and advertise to supply them with agricultural implements at a lower price than charged American farmers. The fact is that farmers rarely, if ever, see such papers. The Mail and Export Journal and The Australasian circulate almost exclusively among large purchasers, and The Engineering and Mining Journal contains little, as its name indicates, that would interest farmers.

A true index of the class to which the readers of any paper belong is its advertising list, and that of The Engineering and Mining Journal shows that its agricultural readers are few indeed. The issue of Aug. 30, for example, has nearly 400 advertisers of at least 100 different classes of goods or services, and not one of them offers agricultural implements. This paper knows that it is quite safe in asserting that "any foreign subscriber" can buy at the low rates advertised, for it knows how few of them are farmers.

In this connection the following, showing the export discounts on freights given by English roads, will be interesting:

Export discounts are given by the English roads in many instances, and where such reductions in freight charges are made on English roads they are met by German, Belgian and Holland roads, except as hereafter mentioned:

Coal—Average British reduction in freight when exported, 76 per cent., and there is a note that "There is no German or Dutch seaport so near the mines." The Belgians make a reduction.

In hardware, cutlery, saws and tools export rates only are given in all four countries.

Cotton Goods—Average British reduction on export, 29 per cent.; none in the other countries.

Woolen, Worsted and Stuff Goods—Average British reduction on export, 13 per cent.; none in the other three countries.

Earthenware and China—Average British reduction on export, 40 per cent. There is also a reduction in the other three countries.

General Machinery—Average British reduction on export, 67 per cent. There is also a reduction on Belgian exports; none in the other countries.

Agricultural Implements (Iron)—Average British reduction on export, 20 per cent. The Germans and Dutch also give a reduction on export; the Belgians do not.

All but about 14 per cent. in length of the German lines and 27 per cent. of the Belgian roads were, at the date of the report, worked by their respective governments. Both the state owned and the private roads in Holland are worked by private companies; those belonging to the state under an agreement. The reductions in freight charges on export goods in the case of English roads are made obligatory by their charters in many, if not in all, cases.

There is one shoe store in Greencastle that does business on straight business principles. This store carries the largest stock of shoes and has more capital invested in the business than all the others combined. One distinctive feature about this firm is the fact that it always pays cash for its stock, having discounted every bill since it started into the business twelve years ago.

All goods are bought directly of the manufacturers at their lowest cash prices and sold for their cash value. You can purchase your shoes at this store with perfect confidence, knowing that you will get those that are good and that you run no risk of paying more for them than they are worth and without that disagreeable accompaniment (dickering over the price) so common at other stores.

All prices are marked in plain figures and are a constant challenge to other dealers to equal them. If it is good reliable footwear that you want, then by all means go to

A FOUR CENT WEDDING FEE.

Some Curious and Laughable Marriage Incidents Related.

Rev. Mr. Woodruff and Rev. J. J. White were seated in the cozy little parlor of the latter's residence on South Third street, Brooklyn. They were discussing the marriage question and reference was made to the numerous marriages solemnized by Mr. White.

"I want to tell you," said Mr. Woodruff, "a peculiar incident that occurred to me not long ago. A young couple presented themselves at my house to be married. After I had performed the ceremony the husband gave me $1. The next day the bride called on me and said her husband had made a mistake, as it was his intention to give me $5. 'Now,' said she, 'if you will give me the dollar back again I will take it and return at once with the larger amount.' I gave her the dollar and she went away, and that is the last I have seen of her or her husband. I have done nothing but talk about the meanness of that bride from that day to this."

"I married a couple a few weeks ago," joined in Rev. Mr. White. "I had married the groom's brother a short time before. The last couple brought a large party with them, and I thought I would get a good fee from the groom. On retiring after the ceremony the young man handed me an envelope. I opened it and read: 'Mr. White: I am out of work this week, but will come on Saturday night and give you $5.' I have not seen him since."

"I knew a couple in Xenia, O., who were married by Rev. Mr. White at that place. After they had been made one the husband said: 'I have no money, but I own a large field of potatoes, and if it will suit you just as well I will pay you for your trouble with some of them.' The minister agreed to take his fee in potatoes. The husband, true to his word, brought Mr. White his fee in a peck measure, potatoes at the time being worth twenty-five cents a bushel. His fee for performing the wedding ceremony was just four and a half cents. My namesake often told me the story and laughed heartily over it."

"I have married on an average about seven couples each week. Sometimes I have had two couples at a time. I married a man from Tremont the other night to a young woman named Lockwood residing on this street. The other day I married a minister's daughter from Newtown. Her husband was 21 years old. I told her that I took it for granted that she was a very good and pious person, because she was the daughter of a minister. She did not affirm, but simply smiled. Continuing, I said all ministers' children ought to be good, though I apprehended there is a little human nature left in them, though they are ministers' daughters. I married three couples the night before. During June and July marriages usually fall off, but thus far they have been my busiest months."

"Some of the couples who come here are very liberal. I joined two young persons in wedlock who walked to my house and after the ceremony gave me $10. 'Then I have had others who drove here in their coaches who only offered $2. You can always tell them by the style they put on.'—New York World.

In His Address the President Congratulates the People of Iowa on Their Prosperity and Sees in His Welcome a Loyalty and Respect to the Country.

OTTUMWA, Iowa, Oct. 10.—It was 8 o'clock yesterday morning when the presidential party reached this city. A delegation headed by Hon. J. G. Hutchinson, ex-Republican candidate for governor of Iowa, and Senator P. G. Ballin-gall, president of the Ottumwa coal palace, met the presidential party at Galesburg Wednesday evening and escorted them to Ottumwa.

The train which arrived here yesterday morning contained, besides the president's car, the private car of Superintendent Wilson, of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy road, who acts as the presidential escort over the western line of this system. It was due to the forethought of Superintendent Wilson and Manager Bishop that a pleasant night's rest was afforded the president
by the train being sidetracked at a quiet little station near Ottumwa until daylight. Despite the early hour, almost the entire populace of the thriving young city of Ottumwa turned out to greet the president, and rousing cheers
were given him.

He was recognized on the rear platform as the train glided into the depot. A moment later the booming of cannon commenced. Ottumwa's welcome to the chief executive and the jollification of the day was fairly begun. In this city resides the president's oldest sister, Sally, as the wife of T. J.
Devins, an old citizen. John S. Harrison, the president's gray-haired older brother, who is in business in Kansas City, met the party here, and from the depot he and Mr. Devins escorted their distinguished relative to the Devins residence, where the family breakfasted together.

It is the intention of the president's brother to accompany the party until Kansas City is reached, when the former will be the guest of his brother.
Early in the forenoon the weather became unfavorable and rain began to fall, but it did not seem to dampen the enthusiasm of the Iowans and certainly did not seriously mar the ceremonies of the occasion, which took place under the roof of the Ottumwa coal palace and Iowa industrial exposition. At 10 o'clock President Harrison, under the escort of Hon. Horace Boies, governor of Iowa, and Senator P. G. Ballingall, president of the coal palace, was escorted through that unique building.
To the president the coal palace was full of interest and his surprise and admiration was thoroughly evidenced by his numerous inquiries.

At 4 o'clock in the afternoon the public ceremonies of the day took place in the presence of an enthusiastic audience of about 10,000 people. After a few preliminary words of welcome to the president, Hon. H. G. Ballingall, president of the coal palace, introduced Governor Horace Boies, who welcomed President Harrison to the state of Iowa
in a neat speech.

After the enthusiasm, which greeted the president's appearance had somewhat subsided, he responded to Governor Boies' address in a brief speech, thanking the Iowans for their hearty welcome and assuring them of the pleasure it afforded him.

He said he would be inappreciative and indeed ungrateful if he were not moved by the generous and spontaneous welcome which had greeted him in this brief western trip. He saw in the welcome tendered him a loyalty and respect of the great American people for that government of which they were the only sovereigns and which had attained such a high rank in the galaxy of nations.
The president congratulated the people of Iowa on the phenomenal progress which they had made as a state in the past decade, and was gratified by the evidence of prosperity, which he observed on every hand.

An Assembly of Mutes.
BOSTON, Oct. 10.—A number of deaf mutes assembled in the vestry of the Church of the Good Shepherd last night and were addressed in the sign language
by several prominent mutes in protest against a recently promulgated theory of Professor Alexander Graham Bell.
Mr. Bell has declared that the offspring of congenital deaf and dumb parents are almost certain to inherit these defects, and urges congress to pass a law preventing their intermarriage. It had been announced that a debate would take place, but the arguments appeared to be all on one side—that of opposition to Mr. Bell's theory—and the assemblage was an entire accord with all the speakers.

"Queen" Plates Unearthed
MADISON, Ind., Oct. 10.—United States
Detectives S. A. Donnell, of Cincinnati, and W. G. Baurer, of Louisville, together with Warden William Thompson, of the Ohio penitentiary, arrived in the city Tuesday night with Convict Falk,
who is serving time for counterfeiting.
Wednesday morning he took officers to Lonesome Hollow, two miles above this city, and unearthed the plates from which he and the famous Miles Ogle have been counterfeiting. The detectives, together with the prisoner, left for Louisville Wednesday afternoon, where the latter will testify in the United States court against another confederate now held in Louisville.

Small Bombshell
LYNN, Mass., Oct. 10.—A bombshell was thrown yesterday in the ranks of the labor circles of this city in the shape of an injunction issued by Judge Mason,
of the superior court, against the members of the cutters' strike who are managing the present strike, and ordering all further intimidation of workmen at Rumsey Brothers' shoe factory to cease.
The respondents are enjoined from preventing any one from approaching the factory for work by intimidation or persuasion, or doing anything tending to injure Rumsey Brothers' business.

His Last Act All Night
LYONS, Iowa, Oct. 10.—Last night
near Clarence, Iowa, a young man named Matthias, drove to the house of Johnson Stears, a farmer, and invited
the latter's daughter to take a drive.
She refused, and her father ordered Matthias from the premises. Matthias then drew a revolver and fired first at Stears and then at a brother of the girl, missing them both. Then he shot himself through the breast, inflicting fatal injuries. Matthias was intoxicated.

THE COUNT OF PARS.

He Will Cause No Trouble Between the United States and France.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—The Sun's Washington correspondent telegraphs
in reply to an inquiry concerning a report that the French legation had complained to the state department about the official or quasi-official nature of the reception given to the Count of Paris in this city. Mr. Blaine made the following reply: "Not a word has passed between the representative of the French government and myself on this subject, and furthermore, no communication
has been sent to the state department
about the matter."

The Sun's correspondent continues:
"Further investigation at the state department establishes the fact that it is not customary for the president to de-pute any one, except an officer of that department, to receive in an official manner a distinguished visitor in this country. If Collector Ehrhardt did welcome the count in the name of the president, as alleged, the department officials contend that he did so without authorization. But the weak point in a diplomatic sense, was the message from the president in reply to the count's telegram to the effect that he would be out of town when the count reached Washington, but would be happy to see him
on his return."

This message was probably sent without sufficient consideration, but diplomats insist that it does not compromise this nation in the least, because it can have no official significance unless it emanates from or passes through the state department, and will be noticed that the state department has been perfectly mum in regard to the count from the outset until the present time.

Shot Her Assassin.
COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 10.—The resort of John Haines was the scene of a tragedy
Thursday afternoon. George Jackson, colored, tried to enter the place and Lillie Reynolds, a white inmate, objected. He insisted and she fired four shots, one taking effect in the breast.

Shooting at a Priest.
CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 10.—At the close of the service in the cathedral of Koumkeope, yesterday, an Armenian in the congregation fired two shots at the arch priest. Neither of the bullets took effect. The man escaped.

Corn Agent Fails.
PESTH, Oct. 10.—A corn agent in this market has failed, with liabilities of 1,000,000 florins. It is believed that other assignments will follow. The trouble is caused by the scantiness of the harvest.

as many more were captured as sea and stolen by poaching vessels.

EN ROUTE WESTWARD.

A Complete Program Arranged for Tourists to the Pacific Coast.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 10.—Preparations for the inaugural series of personally conducted tours to the Pacific coast, under the auspices of the Pennsylvania railroad are progressing, and a detailed outline of their scope, routes, rates and conditions will be published at an early day. The special trains of Pullman vestibuled sleeping and dining cars will exemplify the best work of the Pullman shops. They will run through to California on quick time, delivering their passengers at desirable points in the golden state and picking them up at the appointed rendezvous for the return trip. Tourist agents and chaperons of wide experience will conduct the party and minister to their comforts in every possible way.

Peculiarly favorable concessions will be granted them by the railroads of the Pacific slope, so that their movements
will be the most pleasant and the fullest pleasure at the lowest cost. These tours are the most ambitious attempts yet projected by the Pennsylvania railroad system to provide pleasure tours of the highest grade. The first tour will leave the east late in January. It will be limited to 100 persons, and those who anticipate an early spring outing to the shores of the Pacific should place themselves in correspondence at once with J. R. R.
Wood, general passenger agent of the Pennsylvania railroad, Philadelphia.

AN AGED ELOPER.

Because the Lady Would Not Fleo He Had Her Mother Arrested.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—Mrs. Catherine Schlatter and Mrs. Fredericka Strauss, of No. 137 Moore street, Brooklyn, were arraigned before Justice Goetting in the charge of assaulting Harris Weinburg, who lives in the same house. Weinburg is a peddler of snuff, and is 78 years of age. He claimed that Mrs.
Schlatter hit him on head with a vest, and that Mrs. Strauss attempted to choke him. He also declared that the woman robbed him of $50.

In their defense the women claimed that Weinburg wanted a married daughter of Mrs. Schlatter's to elope with him. She refused and Mrs. Schlatter and Mrs. Strauss protested against such talk on the part of the old man.
Besides he has a wife in California, they say, and his object in getting warrants for them is revenge because they interfered in his proposed elopement with Mrs. Schlatter's married daughter.

Trains Collide.

DULUTH, Minn., Oct. 10.—At 6:35 yesterday morning the Northern Pacific Short Line train, bound for West Superior, collided with freight No. 17, of the St. Paul and Duluth, just opposite the round house, in the West End,
where it was necessary to cross the St.
Paul and Duluth tracks. The Short Line train was running on regular time and had the right of way. The train had partly crossed when it was struck by the freight engine. The engine and several freight cars were demolished and one passenger coach capsized. The most seriously injured of the passengers were: John Kulau, leg broken and badly bruised; Jacob Samson, arm broken;
and A. G. Champagne, badly cut about head and left hand.

Shot His Wife and Her Companion.

TOLEDO, O., Oct. 10.—Wednesday evening Capt. Mike Enright, a prominent vessel captain, met his wife walking with a man named William Murphy. Enright pulled a revolver and shot Murphy through the month. Murphy ran, and Enright sent three bullets into his wife's body, one passing clear through her neck, another in at her back and clearing through her body, coming out at the breast, while the third went in under her arm and up to date has not come out. The wife walked home, but will probably die, while Murphy will live, but is badly hurt. Enright coolly rode home on a street car, but was arrested and lodged in jail.

THE GREAT SOUTH AMERICAN

NERVINE TONIC

—AND—
Stomach & Liver Cure

The Most Astonishing Medical Discovery of the Last One Hundred Years.

It is Pleasant to the Taste as the Sweetest Nectar.
It is Safe and Harmless as the Purest Milk.

This wonderful Nervine Tonic has only recently been introduced into this country by the Great South American Medicine Company, and yet its great value as a curative agent has long been known by the native inhabitants of South America, who rely almost wholly upon its great medicinal powers to cure every form of disease by which they are overtaken.

This new and valuable South American medicine possesses powers and qualities hitherto unknown to the medical profession. This medicine has completely solved the problem of the cure of Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, and diseases of the general Nervous System. It also cures all forms of failing health from whatever cause. It performs this by the Great Nervine Tonic qualities which it possesses and by its great curative powers upon the digestive organs, the stomach, the liver and the bowels. No remedy compares with this wonderfully valuable Nervine Tonic as a builder and strengthening of the life forces of the human body and as a great renewer of a broken down constitution. It is also of more real permanent value in the treatment and cure of diseases of the Lungs than any tea consumption remedies ever used on this continent. It is a marvelous cure for nervousness of females of all ages. Ladies who are approaching the critical period known as change in life, should not fail to use this great Nervine Tonic almost constantly for the space of two or three years. It will carry them safely over the danger. This great strengthener and curative is of inestimable value to the aged and infirm, because its great energizing properties will give them a new hold on life. It will add ten or fifteen years to the lives of many of those who will use a half dozen bottles of the remedy each year.

All these and many other complaints cured by this wonderful Nervine Tonic.

NERVOUS DISEASES.

As a cure for every class of Nervous Diseases, no remedy has been able to compare with the Nervine Tonic, which is very pleasant and harmless in all its effects upon the youngest child or the oldest and most delicate individual. Nine-tenths of all the ailments to which the human family is heir, are dependent on nervous exhaustion and impaired digestion. When there is an insufficient supply of nerve food in the blood, a general state of debility of the brain, spinal marrow and nerves is the result. Starved nerves, like starved muscles, become strong when the right kind of food is supplied, and a thousand weaknesses and ailments disappear as the nerves recover. As the nervous system must supply all the power by which the vital forces of the body are carried on, it is the first to suffer for want of perfect nutrition.
Ordinary food does not contain a sufficient quantity of the kind of nutriment necessary to repair the wear our present mode of living and labor imposes upon the nerves. For this reason it becomes necessary that a nerve food be supplied. This recent production of the South American Continent has been found, by analysis, to contain the essential elements out of which nerve tissue is formed. This accounts for its magic power to cure all forms of nervous derangements.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, IND., AUG. 22, '83.
To the Great South American Medicine Co.:
DEAR GENTS:—I desire to say to you that I have suffered for many years with a very serious disease of the stomach and nerves. I tried every medicine I could hear of but nothing done me any appreciable good until I was advised to try your Great South American Nervine Tonic and Stomach and Liver Cure, and since using several bottles of it I must say that I am surprised at its wonderful powers to cure the stomach and general nervous system. If everyone knew the value of this remedy and did, you would not be able to supply the demand.

A SWORN CURE FOR ST. VITUS'S DANCE OR CHOREA.
CRAWFORDSVILLE, IND., MAY 19, 1886.
My daughter, twelve years old, had been afflicted for several months with St. Vitus's Dance. She was reduced to a skeleton, could not walk, could not talk, could not swal-
